

LODGING & METRO TRANSIT LINKS

There are many hotels to choose from in Downtown Minneapolis that are walking distance to the Cowles Center or just a few stops on the light rail. Here are a few links, but I recommend pricing out hotels on priceline, orbitz etc. The Cowles Center is right on the lightrail line so you do have the option of staying at a hotel outside of downtown (ex. By Mall of America) and taking the lightrail to class.

Metro Transit offers bus, light rail and bicycle <http://metrotransit.org/>
